

Invocation
55th Reunion Memorial Service
May 30, 2024

Donald Mier

Words can only begin to grasp the breadth and depth of the feelings
we are experiencing during these moments.

We are overwhelmed whenever the Holy enters into our time and space.

Our hearts and minds fill with humility, awe and gratitude as we reflect on the past and remember dear ones now gone.

May we be inspired as we “number our days and attain hearts of wisdom.” (Psalm 90:12)
